Depression in London Over Incidents in Red Sca Caused Decline at the Opening.

NEW YORK, July 19.—The stock market was rather reactionary to-day until pear the close, and there was a rather general acquiescence in this condition on the part of speculative operators who have had the leadership of the recent demonstrations for higher prices. The plausible explanation offered for this unusual restraint on the part of a class of individuals rather prone to excess was that the rise in prices was going too far for its own good and that a reaction was normally due. To-day's market showed a tendency to lapse into duliness at slight declines, and the professional bears were apparently very Limid about showed a tendency to lapse into duliness at slight declines, and the professional bears were apparently very timid about making an attack on prices. Some quite vigorous support was offered at the opening decline, and the later market showed the sustaining effect of some new points of strength which were developed. There was little in the day's news that was of material effect on the inovement of prices. The opening decling, however, was plainly a reflection of the depression in the London market, caused by the incidents in the Red 97a. Brooklyn Transit proved to be the early supporting influence, and its advance, coupled with that in Long Island, led to the revival of old rumors of an acquisition of Brooklyn Rapid Transit by Pennsylvania. These rumors were without any verification. The grain and cotton carriers led the final rally with Atchlson in the van, and gains of 1 to 18-8 were established in different members of these groups in the final hour of the trading. The closing was strong and active.

COTTON MARKETS.

NEW YORK, July 19.—The cotton market epened quiet, but steady at a decline of 294 points in response to favoruble weather advices and expectations of a bearish crop report at mid-day. There were no cables to influence sentiment of ther way, and at first the room seemed to hold bearish views as to prices. Selling was restricted, however, by exports from the New York stocks, and while the weekly crop report proved quiet as favorable as had been expected, the market ruled generally steady on moderate covering in the absence of important selling orders. The closs was steady within a post or so of the top saturated at only 75,000 bales. A correction was amounced in the New York stocks which, in connection with the exports reported reduced the total running count to 40,500 bales against 53,513 on the provious day and 157,804 last year. Total exports were of a little over $,000 bales, leaving the stock at all united Sistes ports only 123,335 bales against 21,512 bales a year ago. Frivate advices during the day statect that Bryan. Would Have Removed Secretary Judge O'Brien, the new grand exalted ruler, in an interview to-night stated that there was nothing in the sensational rumors about extravagance on the part of the past grand officers or members of the committees. He said that every dollar had been accounted for by the Auditing Committee. Mr. Fanning, in his report, said Grand Secretary Reynolds had disregarded his duties to such an extent that had it not been for the harmful consequences to the order he would have been removed from office.

Engagement Announced. The engagement is announced of Mr. Bennie Novey, of New York city, and Miss Rebecca Oppleman, of Manchester.
The engagement was octebrated Sunday night at the home of the bride-elect's parents, and a large company assembled to do her honor.

Old War Horse.

Spencer T. Hancock, who has been housed for two years on account of ill health, was out on the streets to-day looking spry and young again.

Mr. Hancock is an old soldier of the Civil War and is a well known character in Richmond and Manchester. He is eighty-one years of age and is somewhat eccentric. One of the stories related of him is that for twenty years he has been keeping a list of those he wished to become his pall-bearers. But many of the pall-bearers have died, while the one they were destined to carry on his final trip. In this world is still alive. However, to keep the list complete Mr. Hancock substitutes others in the places of those whom that fellow "Sergeant Death" ushers into the chambers beyond.

Chicken Stealing Fine Art.

Chicken Stealing Fine Art.

Caroline Seaborn (colored), accused of stealing the chickens of Mrs. A. Garrison, and Lizzie Robinson (colored) also accused of helping sherself to Mrs. Trone's chickens, were Arrested yesterday, by Police Officer Grant. The modern manner of stealing chickens innovated by these two ladies of color, is to throw feed to the chickens of their neighbors, call them sweetly with siren volces and when they get close enough, catch them by their nocks. Up to this date they have found it a profitable business, but the long arms of the law have at length got them, and they will probably give an account of themselvés in to-morrow's court.

Bessie Gibson Guilty.

Bossic Gibson was yesterday found guilty of blackmailing on two charges. In the first case she was given twelve months and fined $1, and on the second, six months and $1, which means eighteen months in the penitentiary and $2 line for her. The woman seems to be perfectly indifferent to her fate, and says that she doesn't care in the least about undergoing her penal sentence.

Mr. Henry McCann, manager of the Ballard House Mission, of Richmond, offered to take the woman, it acquited to the home and give her a new chance in life. His benevolent purpose was defeated by the sentence imposed, and Bessic Gibson will have to start anew in the State penitentiary.

The jurors in her trial were George E, Bethel, T. M. Fondley, Charles Snead, J. D. Mathews, J. P. McNamara, T. W. Craze, S. M. Meyers, G. W. Reams, M. A. Rightsell, A. A. Adkins and W. D. Anderson, pected at Republican Meeting.

HEAVY SCRAP EXPECTED.

Old-Fashioned "Drag Out" Expected at Republican Meeting.

There is every indication that no olive branches will be growing around the hall in which the Republican District Conventions will meet here on July 28th to nominate a candidate for Congress, but that on the other hand there will be an old-fashioned "war to the knife" battle between the Treat and Allan factions. Morgan Treat is a consummate organizer of men, but young 15dgar Allan is not far beind him on this line, especially when he has the benefit of the advice of trained and skillful politicians like his father and former Postmaster Otig H. Russell, it is believed that Allain desires to make the race against Congressman Lamb and that Treat will fight the ascendancy of the young man's political earlier to the last ditch. It is the old fight of the "outs" against the "ins," and a great time is expected when the convention meets.
